Course Rotation for Master’s Degree (M.Ed.) in Early Childhood Education

Please consult the following course rotation schedule to assist you as you create your Plan of Study. The courses below are only offered during the indicated semesters. The Department of Curriculum, Culture, and Educational Inquiry strives to meet the following timetable, but all course offerings are subject to change.

Please Note: Students should refer to the Program Description for other required and area of specialization courses.

Fall Semester

EDF 6481 Educational Research
EDF 6918 Action Research in Schools and Communities
EEX 5015 Survey and Assessment in ECE/ECSE
EEX 5245 Methods in Early Childhood and Exceptional Student Education
ESE 5755 Family and Community Resources in Early Childhood/ECSE
EEC 6236 Principles and Models of Early Childhood Curriculum

Spring Semester

EDF 6481 Educational Research
EDF 6918 Action Research in Schools and Communities
EEX 5015 Survey and Assessment in ECE/ECSE
EEX 5017 Atypical Development Early Childhood/ECSE
ESE 5755 Family and Community Resources in Early Childhood/ECSE
EEC 6932 Seminar in Early Childhood Education: Local, National and International Issues
EEC 6711 Communication Arts in Early Childhood Education

Summer Semester

EDF 6481 Educational Research
EEX 5017 Atypical Development in Early Childhood/ECSE
ESE 5755 Family and Community Resources in Early Childhood/ECSE
EEC 6246 Integrated Curriculum in Early Childhood