Course Rotation for Master's Degree (M.Ed.) in Social Foundations of Education: Multicultural Education

Please consult the following course rotation schedule to assist you as you create your Plan of Study. The courses below are only offered during the indicated semesters. The Department of Curriculum, Culture, and Educational Inquiry strives to meet the following timetable, but all course offerings are subject to change.

Please Note: Students should refer to the Program Description for other required and area of specialization courses.

Fall Semester

- EDG 5705 Seminar in Multicultural Education
- EDF 6615 Teaching the African American Student
- EDF 6800 Foundations of Global Education
- EDF 6918 Action Research in Schools and Communities

Spring Semester

- EDF 6637 Race, Class, and Gender in Education
- EDF 6887 Foundations of Multicultural Education
- EDF 6918 Action Research in Schools and Communities
- EDG 6625 Global Perspective of Curricular Trends

Summer Semester

- EDF 7578 Critical Foundations of Educational Inquiry