

University Resources for FAU Students

Obtaining a graduate degree is a rewarding and challenging experience. From time to time students may need to meet with their faculty advisor to discuss ways to improve their standing in their program. The following is a list of potential university resources available to all students. All students as well as those in need of remediation and additional support are encouraged to visit the following links.

Services are available to all members of the FAU community: full- and part-time undergraduate and graduate students, staff, faculty, and visiting scholars.

- Writing consultants help writers at any point of the writing process (i.e. brainstorming, drafting, revision) with a variety of documents: papers for courses, senior or master theses, dissertations, job applications, applications for graduate school, articles for publication, grant proposals, course syllabi, among other documents.
- Consultants help writers understand assignments, generate ideas, and flesh out weak or biased arguments.
- Consultants help writers identify and address patterns of error in sentence structure, mechanics, grammar, and documentation format, as well as share proven proofreading strategies.
- Consultants will provide consultations for creative writers and their writing projects.
