

Deans Office College of Education

Faculty Profile and Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Patricia Heydet-Kirsch

Assistant Dean of Accreditation and Assessment

pheydet@fau.edu

Curriculum Vitae

Boca Raton Campus

Credentials:

Ed.D. University of Miami, Higher Education Leadership (2002)

M.S.Ed. University of Miami, Health Specialist

B.S.Ed. University of Miami, Biology, Science and Health Education

Biography

Dr. Patricia Heydet-Kirsch is the Assistant Dean in the College of Education (COE) responsible for Accreditation and Assessment. She joined the University in 2004, and has taught ESE 3940 Secondary School Effective Instruction, SCE 4360 Science: Middle and Secondary School, EDH 6205 Improving College Teaching and ADE 6387 Workplace Learning. Dr. Heydet-Kirsch serves the University as the Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP) Distinction through Discovery Assessment Coordinator, and is involved with the Effective Integration of Education Impact and Outcome (EIEIO) Honors in the Major Curriculum Grant in the Secondary Education Program.

Dr. Heydet-Kirsch is a National Board Certified Teacher, and earned the Presidential Award for Excellence in Mathematics and Science Teaching. She is an author along with Dr. Robert Shockley, Chair and Professor, and Dr. John Hardman, Instructor, both of the Department of Educational Leadership and Research Methodology, and Dr. Elisha Watlington, Associate Provost for the Northern Campuses, COE Associate Dean of Assessment and Northern Campuses, and Assistant Professor, Educational Leadership and Research Methodology, of an article, "From Compliance to Engagement: Lessons Learned from Applying a Transformational Approach to Addressing NCATE Standard 4-Diversity," published in 2011 for a journal called, Educational Consideration. Her CV includes numerous presentations, webinars and accreditation reports. Dr. Heydet-Kirsch has served on many committees at the State, University and College levels.