Biography

Dr. Susannah Brown, Associate Professor, brings a warm smile and artistic beauty to the Department of Teaching and Learning in Florida Atlantic University (FAU)'s College of Education (COE). Dr. Brown is in charge of art education programs and is responsible for maintaining and organizing art education studios and classrooms on the Boca Raton, Davie and Jupiter Campuses. She also supervises all art education student teachers and often displays the artwork of her students. Dr. Brown is devoted to showing her undergraduate and graduate students how to implement art instruction in the elementary and secondary classrooms. She also teaches curriculum in art education at the graduate level. Dr. Brown joined FAU in 2004 as an Assistant Professor. She served as Art Coordinator from 2004 to 2007 and as Lead Faculty Member from 2009 to 2010.

Presently, Dr. Brown serves as the Higher Education Division Director for the Florida Art Education Association (FAEA) and on the FAEA Executive Board. She also serves as Vice President of Kappa Delta Pi (KDP), the International Honor Society in Education, and is a member of its 2014-2016 Executive Council. She accepted the Literacy Alive! 2011-2012 Gold Achievement Award on behalf of KDP's Omega Chapter, where she served as co-counselor from 2009-2012. She was elected president of the COE Faculty Assembly for the 2012-2013 school year. Dr. Brown earned the FAU Innovative Undergraduate Teaching Award, one of eight awards throughout the University, and the COE Undergraduate Teaching Award in 2009. Dr. Brown is the author of the book, Teaching Art Integration in the Schools, published in 2012. She seeks to improve art education and integrate art with other subjects.
